

ACTING CRAFT IN POLISH THEATRE
Teacher	Prof. Grzegorz Ziólkowski Institute of Theatre and Media Art AMU grzeg@amu.edu.pl
Hours	30
ECTS	5
Place	Theatre Studio, Collegium Maius, 10 Fredry street, entrance from the library hall behind the main building (with a big dome), from Kowalczyka lane
Course description	The course, of a highly practical nature, aims at studying basics of acting craft through work on individual acting scenes. Its first part focuses on elementary skills of performer such as abilities to be open to dialogue, to integrate action and speech, and to react swiftly and adequately to impulses which come from various sources: partners, texts, images, music, space and inner environs of associations, imagination and memories. The second part is devoted to devising and performing a short, repeatable and precise individual scene based on a text fragment selected individually by a student. The course is aimed not only and not primarily at those students who wish to study acting but also and above all at those who would like to deepen in practical way their understanding of human creativity and expression.
Module aims	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To develop the ethical attitude in students in relation to theatre work; • To provide students with different methods and techniques of individual and partner work on movement, improvisation, composition, and text; • To provide students with skills of analyzing textual material, iconography, music, as well as selecting props for theatre work; • To sensitize students to the importance of lighting and space in the creative process, and to teach students how to solve basic technical problems in this area; • To prepare students to create and share an individual or partner acting scene.
Pre-requisites	Non applicable
Assessment criteria	Attendance is required. Students who miss more than two meetings (except for illness or other serious matters) will not be assessed. Students are assessed on the basis of an individual acting scene elaborated during the course.
